

Nature coordinator

<https://shorturl.at/Bvj1B>

What I like

Protect the environment,
share my passion

Tasks and working conditions

The job of a nature facilitator consists of:

- Raising awareness among audiences of all ages about natural heritage by organizing activities.
- Supervising school or tourist groups.
- Designing tools or animation projects.
- Awakenning curiosity.
- Educating about environmental preservation.

Required qualities

To practice this profession:

- You need to be versatile and autonomous.
- You must be able to adapt to different audiences and weather conditions.
- You need to be caring.
- You should have good physical condition.

Training

In France

- BAFA (Certificate of Aptitude for the Functions of Animator): Must be 16 years old.
- BPJEPS (Professional Certificate for Youth, Popular Education, and Sport): Requires a high school diploma (baccalauréat) level.
- B TSA GPN (Higher Technician Certificate in Nature Management and Protection): Two years of study after obtaining the baccalauréat.

Internship locations

Ferme de la Ville Oger
21 rue des Gallois - 22000 Saint-Brieuc - France